

How to Use: Money Goal Accountability Planner

A buyer-friendly guide for getting the most value from the Money Goal Accountability Planner spreadsheet and printable PDF.

Purpose	Turns financial goals into weekly actions, check-ins, habits, and accountability notes.
Best for	People who know what they should do financially but struggle to stay consistent.

What to enter

- Main financial goal
- Why the goal matters
- Weekly action steps
- Habit checklist
- Barriers and solutions
- End-of-week reflection

Step-by-step instructions

1. Write one clear money goal for the next 30 to 90 days.
2. Define why the goal matters emotionally and practically.
3. Break the goal into weekly actions.
4. Track habits and spending behaviours each week.
5. Reflect weekly and adjust the plan without quitting.

Quick tips for best results

- Keep goals specific and measurable.
- Use a weekly review day, such as Sunday night.
- Focus on consistency rather than perfection.

Spreadsheet vs printable PDF

Spreadsheet version	Printable PDF version
Use for automatic totals, formulas, and ongoing edits.	Use for printing, handwriting, or adding to a workbook bundle.
Only edit input cells and keep formulas intact.	Print at actual size or fit-to-page depending on printer settings.

Product positioning note

Recommended bundle pathway: Pairs well with every Phase 2 product as the behavioural accountability layer. This helps buyers move from planning to consistent action.
