

How to Use: Payday Account Splitter

A buyer-friendly guide for getting the most value from the Payday Account Splitter spreadsheet and printable PDF.

Purpose	Shows the buyer exactly how much to transfer into bills, savings, spending, rent/mortgage, and goal accounts every payday.
Best for	People who get paid weekly, fortnightly, or monthly and want a simple account-splitting routine.

What to enter

- Pay amount
- Pay date
- Bills allocation
- Savings allocation
- Rent or mortgage allocation
- Spending money allocation

Step-by-step instructions

1. Enter the pay date and pay amount.
2. Fill in each account category based on the budget.
3. Check the total allocated amount matches the pay amount.
4. Transfer money immediately after getting paid to avoid accidental spending.
5. Repeat this process every payday and update amounts when income or bills change.

Quick tips for best results

- Use separate bank accounts where possible for bills, savings, and everyday spending.
- Automate transfers if the pay amount is stable.
- Leave a small buffer in the everyday account to avoid overdrafts.

Spreadsheet vs printable PDF

Spreadsheet version	Printable PDF version
Use for automatic totals, formulas, and ongoing edits.	Use for printing, handwriting, or adding to a workbook bundle.
Only edit input cells and keep formulas intact.	Print at actual size or fit-to-page depending on printer settings.

Product positioning note

Recommended bundle pathway: Pairs well with Budget Planner and Savings Goal Tracker. This helps buyers move from planning to consistent action.
